CASE NO. 2:11-cv-02666-PSG(Ex)
[Hon. Philip S. Gutierrez]

~~[PROPOSED]~~ PROTECTIVE ORDER PUSUANT TO STIPULATION

Trial Date: January 8, 2013
Complaint Filed: March 30, 2011

Consistent with the stipulation between Defendant Stonefield Josephson, Inc., CPAs ("Stonefield") and plaintiff Robert P. Mosier as Receiver for Private Equity Management Group, Inc. and Private Equity Management Group, LLC and their subsidiaries and affiliates ("Receiver"), and in order to protect the confidentiality of confidential information obtained by the parties in connection with the above-captioned action, the Court hereby orders:

1. This Protective Order Pursuant to Stipulation (the "Protective Order") shall govern the use, handling, and disclosure of all documents, testimony, or information produced or otherwise disclosed ("Produced") in the above-captioned

1 action (the "Action") that is designated by the producing party as "Confidential" (as 2 defined in ¶ 3 below) ("Confidential Information").

3 2. "Confidential Information" means any documents, testimony, or 4 information that the producing party in good faith designates as "Confidential" and 5 represents to be properly the subject of a protective order pursuant to Federal Rules of 6 Civil Procedure Rule 26.

7 3. A producing party shall designate a document or information, or a 8 portion of a document or information, as "Confidential" only if it has good faith belief 9 that the designated portion of the document or information contains private personal 10 information, trade secrets, or constitutes non-public commercial, financial, research, 11 development, technology, business planning, or other proprietary information.

12 4. A producing party shall designate Confidential Information in the 13 following manner:

14 a. At the time of Production, a document containing Confidential 15 Information shall be so designated by marking each page containing Confidential 16 Information with the legend "CONFIDENTIAL," and the producing party shall 17 contemporaneously notify the recipient in writing which portions (designated by 18 document control number) of the Produced document or information has been so 19 designated.

20 b. Any response to an interrogatory or request for admission that 21 contains Confidential Information shall be so designated by imprinting or affixing 22 "CONFIDENTIAL" next to or above the response.

23 c. Any of the parties may designate as containing Confidential 24 Information any testimony at a deposition or hearing, transcript pages, or exhibits that 25 contain Confidential Information by stating either designation on the record at the 26 deposition or hearing, or by written notice to counsel for the opposing parties no later 27 than fifteen (15) days after the receipt of the transcript of the deposition or hearing.

28 ///

1 d. Any of the parties may designate as containing Confidential 2 Information testimony that is not transcribed by written notice to counsel for the 3 opposing parties no later than thirty (30) days after the testimony is given. Regardless 4 of whether any of the parties designates as containing Confidential Information 5 testimony that is not transcribed, all testimony that is not transcribed shall be treated 6 as Confidential Information until fifteen (15) days after the testimony is given.

7 5. A non-party witness may designate any document which it is producing 8 and which it believes contains confidential or proprietary business information and/or 9 trade secrets as "Confidential" pursuant to the terms of this Protective Order by 10 stamping it with such designation as detailed in Paragraphs 3 and 4 of this Protective 11 Order.

12 6. Documents, testimony, or information obtained through discovery in this 13 Action, which is designated as Confidential Information, may be used or disclosed 14 solely for the prosecution or defense of this Action.

15 7. A receiving party may disclose materials designated as "Confidential" 16 only to:

17 a. A party, director, partner, in house counsel, officer or employee 18 with knowledge of the facts underlying this matter of a party to this Action;

19 b. Counsel of record for the parties or agents of such counsel, 20 including professionals or non-professionals assisting with the litigation of this matter;

21 c. Independent experts and consultants who are providing advice in 22 connection with the litigation or preparation for the trial of this litigation;

23 d. A non-party witness at any interview, deposition, hearing or trial in 24 this Action;

25 e. A court reporter or videographer recording testimony in this 26 Action;

27 f. The Court and its employees whose duties require access to the 28 Confidential Information;

1 g. Any mediator or settlement officer appointed by the Court or 2 agreed to by the parties;

3 h. Any other person only upon further express order of the Court or 4 written consent of the producing party; or 5 i. Any trier of fact, including the judge and jury.

6 8. Inadvertent failure to designate documents or other materials as 7 Confidential Information at the time of production shall not waive a party's right to 8 later make such a designation. However, no party shall be deemed to have violated 9 this Order, if, prior to notification of any later designation, such document or material 10 has been disclosed or used in a manner inconsistent with such later designation. Once 11 such a designation has been made, however, the relevant documents or materials shall 12 be treated as Confidential in accordance with this Order.

13 9. Subject to paragraph 12 hereof, the terms of this Protective Order apply 14 to any Confidential Information produced before or after it is entered, and the terms of 15 this Protective Order shall be binding upon the parties to this Action and their counsel, 16 as well as on any deponents or witnesses in this Action and their counsel.

17 10. If during the course of a deposition taken in this Action any questions are 18 to be asked or any answers are to be given containing Confidential Information or 19 regarding any material designated "Confidential," then only persons designated in 20 paragraph 7(a), 7(b) and 7(c), the deponent (and the deponent's counsel in the case of 21 a separately represented non-party), and the court reporter and/or videographer shall 22 be allowed to be present during such portion of the deposition, and that portion of the 23 deposition shall be designated "Confidential." This paragraph shall not be deemed to 24 authorize disclosure of any Confidential Information to any person to whom 25 disclosure is prohibited under this Protective Order.

26 11. All parties and their attorneys and all deponents and trial witnesses and 27 their attorneys shall take all necessary and proper steps to preserve the confidentiality 28 of all Confidential Information. The designated material shall not be disclosed to 1 anyone other than in connection with this Action and shall not be disclosed by the 2 recipient to anyone other than those persons designated in paragraph 7. If material so 3 designated is disclosed to any person other than in the manner authorized in this 4 Protective Order, the party responsible for the disclosure will immediately, upon 5 learning of such disclosure, inform the designating party of all pertinent facts relating 6 to such disclosure and shall make every effort to prevent disclosure by each 7 unauthorized person who received such materials.

8 12. Before any disclosure of Confidential Information to any individual or 9 entity identified in sub-paragraphs 7(c)<sup>1</sup>, (d), and (h) above, that individual or entity 10 will be given a copy of this Protective Order and shall acknowledge in writing, in the 11 form of the "Declaration and Undertaking" attached as Exhibit "A" hereto, that he or 12 she has received a copy of this Protective Order, has reviewed it and understands it, 13 and will comply with its terms in all respects. If any such person or entity refuses to 14 sign such Declaration and Undertaking, all parties hereto, through their counsel of 15 record, agree to support any application to the Court that such witness be compelled to 16 abide by the terms of this Protective Order and/or that such witness be excused from 17 signing this Protective Order if the Court so determines. The named counsel of record 18 who have secured such a Declaration and Undertaking from any individual or entity 19 shall maintain it in his/her files until the conclusion of this action, including any 20 appeals. Absent the counsel of record's consent, a Declaration and Undertaking may 21 be discovered only by order of the Court for good cause shown, on written notice to 22 the Court.

23 ///

25
26 <sup>1</sup> With respect to independent experts and consultants, there need only be one 27 Declaration and Undertaking executed by a representative of the experts' and/or 28 consultants' firm, which will thereby be deemed to be executed on behalf of the firm and each of its employees, members, partners, shareholders, agents and/or independent contractors, who view Confidential Information.

1       13. In no event shall Confidential Information be left in the possession of the 2 witness. To the extent a witness testifies regarding such documents, counsel may 3 direct that any exhibits to the deposition transcript designated as Confidential be 4 excluded from the copy of the deposition transcript provided to the deponent.

5       14. The inadvertent, unintentional, or in camera disclosure or production of 6 designated and undesignated documents and information contained therein shall not 7 be deemed a waiver, in whole or in part, of any party's claims of attorney-client or 8 attorney work product privilege, provided that the producing party, within a 9 reasonable time, notifies the receiving party of its claim of privilege. After being 10 notified, a party must promptly return, sequester, or destroy the specified documents 11 or information and any copies. The producing party must preserve it pending a ruling 12 by the Court.

13       15. Nothing in this Protective Order shall be construed to prevent a party to 14 this Action from opposing the designation of materials to be delivered as 15 "Confidential." A party opposing the designation of materials to be delivered as 16 "Confidential" shall serve a written objection, including a statement of the ground for 17 objection, on the producing party. The producing party will have ten (10) days 18 following the receipt of the objection to withdraw its "Confidential" designation. If 19 the "Confidential" designation is not withdrawn, the objecting party may move the 20 Court for an order removing the designation. The party claiming confidentiality shall 21 bear the burden of establishing that the material in question in fact warrants protection 22 under the terms of this Protective Order. Until an objection has been resolved by 23 agreement of counsel, or in the event a motion has been filed as prescribed above, by 24 order of the Court, the designated material shall be treated as Confidential Information 25 and used only in accordance with the limitations set forth in this Protective Order.

26       16. If at any time any Confidential Information is requested by any court, 27 administrative agency, legislative body or other person or entity through subpoena or 28 other compulsory process, the person receiving such subpoena or compulsory process

1 (the "Receiving Party") shall as permitted by law give written notice to counsel for the 2 designating party that such a request has been received. The written notice shall 3 include the date of any proposed disclosure of such Confidential Information and such 4 other information necessary to permit the designating party to intervene and oppose 5 the disclosure of Confidential Information in response to that request. It shall be the 6 obligation of the designating party to obtain a court order or other lawful relief to 7 preclude or restrict production of any Confidential Information requested pursuant to a 8 subpoena or other compulsory process.

9 17. No party shall argue, question, or imply in any way, before a jury or 10 other trier of fact, that the designation of any Confidential Information as Confidential 11 under this Protective Order is improper or suspicious.

12 18. No later than sixty (60) days following the conclusion of all proceedings 13 in this Action, including but not limited to any appeals, all Confidential Information 14 received by any party, regardless of the form in which the information has been 15 stored, recorded, or preserved, shall, upon written request by the producing party, be 16 either returned to the producing party or destroyed under the supervision of counsel of 17 record for the recipient, with a certificate of destruction furnished to counsel for the 18 producing party, provided that counsel of record retain for its files, subject to the 19 continuing strictures of this Protective Order, copies of pleadings, affidavits, briefs, 20 and memoranda filed in this proceeding, transcripts of all depositions (with exhibits) 21 taken, and all of its own work product generated in connection with this action.

22 19. This Protective Order shall remain binding after the conclusion of this 23 litigation unless otherwise ordered by the Court, and the Court shall retain jurisdiction 24 over all parties and persons subject to this Protective Order for the purpose of 25 enforcing the provisions of this Protective Order and to enter such orders as may be 26 necessary to compel and impose sanctions for any violation. This Protective Order is 27 without prejudice to and does not impair the ability or rights of any party to move for 28 the lifting or modification of this Protective Order.

20. Nothing contained in this Protective Order and no action taken pursuant to it shall prejudice the right of any party to contest the alleged relevancy, admissibility or discoverability of any information or documents furnished pursuant to the terms of this Protective Order.
